Martha's Vineyard

In a summer destination that's ruled by vacation rentals, it's always big news when a hotel opens its doors. This season, the design-driven Lark Hotels group rolls out two on the island: Summercamp in Oak Bluffs and The Christopher in Edgartown. Here, some packing inspiration for a classic New England getaway.

THE QUICK-FIRE GUIDE

Aquinnah and Gay Head for the best beaches.

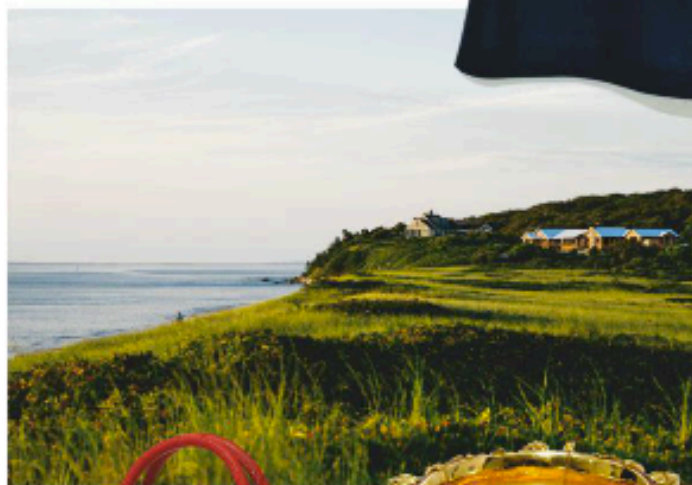

The Beach Plum Inn & Restaurant, in Menemsha, for rosé at sunset (the town is dry, so it's BYOB).

Larsen's Fish Market, in Menemsha, for crab cakes (eat them down the road on the public beach).

Mad Martha's, in Oak Bluffs, for two scoops of Lotsa Dough ice cream.

State Road, in West Tisbury, for chopped lobster salad and a glass of Roederer Estate Brut.

West Tisbury Farmers Market, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Hermès shirt and shorts, $1,300 and $3,775; Bully belt, $525; Rag & Bone Panama hat, $230; Salvatore Ferragamo sandals, $825; Van Cleef & Arpels Magic Allumbras earrings, $7,250; Bulgari Giardini Italiani sunglasses, $645; Tiffany & Co.
